How to use standing orders

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

The standing orders do not include financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.

Drafting notes

Standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council's needs.

For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in standing orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights.

The Parish Council decided on 8 February 2021 to have working groups rather than Committees so that all decisions where powers have not been delegated are decided by the full Council.

The following standing orders in section 4 for Committees therefore are not required but are included so that they can be brought into operation if a future Council decides to appoint a Committee.

The Council in organising its business shall adopt the following approach.

1. The Council meeting will focus on

- a Its representational role in articulating the views of the Parish
- b Setting a strategic direction for the Parish
- c Approving a budget and precept for the Parish
- d Approving expenditure above delegated limits and ensuring all projects have effective project management
- e Ensuring all statutory requirements are met including financial control
- f Responding to statutory and other consultations
- g Creating policies for the Parish

2. The Clerk and Responsible Financial Officer shall (Also see Proper Officer item 17)

- a Be delegated responsibility for the administration and operations of the Council reporting issues of significance to the following Council meeting
- b Carry out the duties of a Responsible Financial Officer and the Clerk as set out in regulations and as approved by the Council on appointing the post
- c Research and prepare reports for the Council on issues for the Council
